

Music & Entertainment Industries VISITING RESIDENT EXPERTS

Atlantic Records' Paul Sinclair Named Visiting Resident Expert for 2014-15

From left to right: Dr. Stephen Marcone, former Director of WP Music & Entertainment Industries program, Paul Sinclair, Atlantic Records Head of Digital & eCommerce, Kari Keller, MBA Music Management class of '14, David Philp, Director, Music & Entertainment Industries and Popular Music Studies.

John Boulos is Visiting Resident Expert for 2017-18

From left to right: Professor David Philp, Director, Music & Entertainment Industries and Popular Music Studies; Visiting Resident Expert John Boulos, Executive Vice-President of Radio Promotion for Atlantic Records; and Dr. Stephen Marcone, former Director of WP Music & Entertainment Industries program.

300 Entertainment's Mark Robinson is Visiting Resident Expert for 2018-2019

Mark Robinson, Vice President of Business & Legal Affairs at 300 Entertainment, will serve as the Music & Entertainment Industries Visiting Resident Expert for the 2018-2019 academic year. Robinson's long resume also includes stints at BMG and the Warner Music Group. Robinson was named by Billboard Magazine as one of 2016's Digital Power Players. He will visit various William Paterson University music business classes during the school year and speak with students about publishing, streaming, and legal issues within today's music and entertainment industry.

KATE HYMAN, VP OF A&R FOR BMG, 2019-2020 VISITING RESIDENT EXPERT

Kate Hyman is a veteran in the music industry, having worked in both publishing and record labels. She currently works at BMG and has signed artists such as Nathaniel Rateliff and the Night Sweats, Valerie June, The Flaming Lips, Patti Smith, Perry Farrell, Karen O, Aimee Mann, Paula Cole, Henry Rollins, and more. She started her career at Shelter Records at the age of 18. Kate helped start Richard Branson's V2 label as its first U.S. employee. She has worked at BMG for 9 years.