

CONSTITUTION DAY 2019

13th

A Film by Ava DuVerney

Presented by the David & Lorraine Cheng Library Civic Literacy Initiative and the American Democracy Project

SEPTEMBER 17, 2019
LIBRARY AUDITORIUM
2-4 PM

Post Film Discussion Led by Dr. Ryan Rebe

Referencing the 13th Amendment to the Constitution, this film explores the history of racial inequality in the United States, focusing on the fact that the nation's prisons are disproportionately filled with African-Americans.

"We the People of the United States in Order to form a more Perfect union,.....

William Paterson

September 17, 1787

WP Leads Civic Engagement Credit
Contact Gary Marks marksg@wpunj.edu