

SUMMER FORENSIC FIELD COURSE

May 24 – June 18, 2021

On Campus

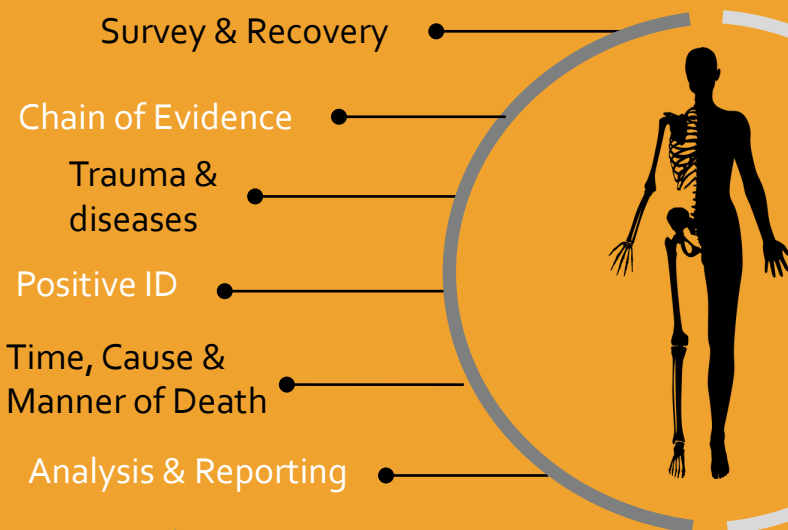

Tues, Wed & Thurs 10:00-2:30

ANTH 4950.001, 3CR

Summer 4A

LEARNING TO PROCESS CRIME SCENES

WHEN BONES tell a STORY

This four-week field course provides a theoretical and practical overview of the methods and protocols applied in Forensic Anthropology & Archaeology through an intensive program of mock crime scenes and hands-on field and lab work.

- Survey and Locate Crime Scenes
- Recover evidence
- Analyze skeletal remains

For:

MAJORS & MINORS

- Anthropology
- Forensic Studies
- Criminal justice
- Sociology
- Biological Sciences
- Legal Studies
- Community Development & Social Justice

Email Instructors if you have questions:

- Dr. Carina Marques, Forensic Anthropologist (marquesa3@wpunj.edu)
- Dr. Ruth Maher, Archaeologist (maherr2@wpunj.edu)

WILLIAM PATERSON
UNIVERSITY