PROTECTING THE CROWN: BREAKING GENERATIONAL CURSES

LaTosha Brown, Cofounder of Black Voters Matter and National Organizer, Political Strategist, and Contributor to MSNBC, New York Times who fearlessly advocates for democracy/Civic Engagement, Philanthropy, and Women’s Empowerment will speak about the work she's doing to advance racial justice and political power for marginalized people, galvanizing our community to action for this year’s Black History Month theme “Protecting the Crown: Breaking generations curses”.

Moderated Q&A will follow the presentation using the chat feature on Zoom.
