Brianna asked Elie if amendments that she had given him were being worked on. He stated that they were not. Brianna expressed the importance of these amendments being completed as the process of making changes began before he was elected.

VIII. Advisor's Comments

Jaime stated that the registration and hotel have been booked for the NCSL conference and the reservation for the car has to be put in. He mentioned that Donna will send an email to professors asking for members to be excused from classes. However, it is the discretion of the professor if they will approve the absence. He asked that members try to send Donna the needed info 2 weeks prior. Jaime explained to the e-board that there will be over 1000 students attending the conference. This will be the time for them to see how other e-boards function. He informed them that each e-board member will receive $50 per day from SGA to spend on food, snacks and drinks (non-alcoholic). Jaime expressed the importance of members retaining their receipts as they must turn them in once they return. Also, during the conference breakfast and lunch will be provided. Lastly, they will leave @ 12 noon on Wednesday, 11/15/17 and return to campus @ 12 noon on Sunday, 11/19/17.

IX. New Business

Brianna stated that she has confirmed with Theresa Bivaletz that the It's On Us event will be held on 11/21/17 during common hour. She mentioned that there will be 15 groups participating and 6 mandatory topics will be covered. A few of those groups that will participate are: Athletics, Student Development, Campus Police, Women's Center and NJCO. Participating in this event will count as civic engagement. She stated that senators will receive office hours if they help out.
