V. Maylene Angeles, Vice President of Public Relations

1. SGA Awards Dinner

Maylene mentioned that she has contacted the Brownstone and they have agreed to the same room and pricing as last year's awards dinner. She stated that this year there will be no Who's Who awards given. Maylene also stated that the cost is $25.90 pp the total for 220 ppl. was $5698.00. This year she estimates 150 ppl. with the cost being $3885.00. She mentioned that they will still need the bus and she also needs the invite list from Brianna.

VI. Jackeline Reyes, VP of Allocations

1. Club Council

Jackeline stated that during the upcoming club council meeting she will give a script to all that are in attendance so that they know exactly how Allocations works when they come to request money as well as the steps leading up to attending the Allocations meeting.

VII. Nahshon Bolton, VP of Student Life

1. Joint Forum

Nahshon mentioned that he had a joint committee meeting with Isabel. He stated that they will have tabling of different resources. He also mentioned that senators will be there to cover tables so that students are more comfortable with asking questions. Jackeline suggested that Nahshon look into possibly having student workers at the tables along with senators, so that they can give more in-depth information to students. Nahshon agreed that is a good idea and he will look into that. He further stated that if there aren't any student workers for that particular table he will see if faculty would mind being at the table with the senator.

VIII. Advisor's Comments

Jaime- welcome back everyone. Its senior count down please follow through with what you're working on. Try not to lose focus. He stated that if VPs are unable to finish what they started leave it with someone who will complete the task.

Donna- welcome back everyone. Suggested that VPs take a look at the amendments. She stated that it will help if each person takes on an amendment so that they can be done before the semester ends. Donna mentioned that Pioneer Appreciation Week is next week.

IX. Old Business

Nejesea- please don't forget to remind your vice-chairs to email minutes.

Maylene- asked Brianna if Jerry could do tabling one of the Wednesday's that he is here. Brianna replied that she doesn't see a problem with that. She stated that Maylene should reach out to him.

X. Adjournment- 5:52pm
